Dance Space OMYT Brings Nadezhda Kokhanova's Performance "Mayday" to the "Tochka Cuire" Festival

On October 25 at 13:00, in the Gallery of CSI "Byl" (Stary Oskol, Zhukova microdistrict 38), the "Tochka Cuire" contemporary art festival hosts the physical-theatre reflection piece "Mayday" — featuring Dance Space OMYT (Saint Petersburg). Director and choreographer — Nadezhda Kokhanova, producer — Misha Kazmiruk. Running time — about 45 minutes, 16+, standing tickets — 1,500 ₺.

ABOUT THE PERFORMANCE

Mayday is the international radiotelephony distress signal, used in situations presenting an immediate threat to life — such as ships and aircraft in distress. But what if the signal is sent and the disaster never comes? What if the fall drags on, and fear crosses every limit, growing into an endless wait? And which is worse — the catastrophe, or waiting for the catastrophe? Or perhaps the catastrophe is only an illusion, a dream?

"Mayday" is a physical-theatre reflection on how to lose oneself inside time and the logic of events — without ever stopping to track what the real "I" makes of it all.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Nadezhda Kokhanova is a director and choreographer. At "Tochka Cuire" she also presents the production "The Rashomon Effect" and the physical-theatre sketch "The Scent of Rose Oil".

At "Tochka Cuire" he also gives the lecture "How Dance Is Born and Lives in the Real World" in the business programme. AELITA PRODUCTION has already worked with Kazmiruk — the company brought "Stories. Of the Earthly and the Heavenly" to the New Stage of the Alexandrinsky Theatre, with Kazmiruk also curating that showing — but this is the company's first time working with OMYT.
