OMYT Residents Bring Nadezhda Kokhanova's Production "The Rashomon Effect" to the "Tochka Cuire" Festival

On October 24 at 18:00, in the Blue Hall of CSI "Byl" (Stary Oskol, Zhukova microdistrict 38), the "Tochka Cuire" contemporary art festival hosts the physical-theatre production "The Rashomon Effect" — residents of dance space OMYT (Saint Petersburg). Director and choreographer — Nadezhda Kokhanova, producer — Misha Kazmiruk. Running time — about 45 minutes, 16+.

ABOUT THE PRODUCTION

Do people ever tell the truth? A person doesn't admit everything even to themselves, let alone to others.

A meditation on the nature of human vice, on the attempt to find its causes and understand its consequences. Is committed evil a manifestation of fear, shame, lovelessness and vanity? Or something else. The audience is invited to look within, through the imagery of Akutagawa and Kurosawa, and — amid the collision of several truths — to try to find their own: an indisputable, absolute truth.

Nadezhda Kokhanova is a director and choreographer. At "Tochka Cuire" she also presents the performance "Mayday" and the physical-theatre sketch "The Scent of Rose Oil".

ABOUT THE PRODUCER

Mikhail (Misha) Kazmiruk connects art and infrastructure at top-management level. At "Tochka Cuire" he also gives the lecture "How Dance Is Born and Lives in the Real World" in the business programme. AELITA PRODUCTION has already worked with Kazmiruk — the company brought "Stories. Of the Earthly and the Heavenly" to the New Stage of the Alexandrinsky Theatre, with Kazmiruk also curating that showing — but this is the company's first time working with OMYT.
