OMYT Residents Bring the Physical-Theatre Sketch “The Scent of Rose Oil” to the “Tochka Cuire” Festival

On October 25 at 19:00, in the Blue Hall of CSI “Byl” (Stary Oskol, Zhukova microdistrict 38), the “Tochka Cuire” contemporary art festival hosts the physical-theatre reflection sketch “The Scent of Rose Oil” — residents of dance space OMYT (Saint Petersburg). Choreographer and director — Nadezhda Kokhanova, producer — Misha Kazmiruk. Running time — about 45 minutes, 16+.

ABOUT THE PRODUCTION

Everything is clear as day, though the day will only be called that decades from now. There is power, and there is peace. And there is a price we pay for choosing one or the other. One day that choice turns out to have been settled, predetermined, inevitable. And the price — centuries of wandering, loneliness, alienation, and that terrible scent, the scent of rose oil, bringing an eternal, unbearable headache.

A physical-theatre reflection on the biblical thread of Mikhail Bulgakov’s novel “The Master and Margarita” — on a choice that one day turns out to have already been decided, and the price paid for it.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Nadezhda Kokhanova is a choreographer and director. At “Tochka Cuire” she also presents the performance “Mayday” and the production “The Rashomon Effect”.

ABOUT THE PRODUCER

Mikhail (Misha) Kazmiruk connects art and infrastructure at top-management level. He curates the “New Dance” programme at the New Stage of the Alexandrinsky Theatre, which has released more than 150 projects in three years; as producer of the ODYSSEY festival he manages four stages for 10,000 attendees. At “Tochka Cuire” he also gives the lecture “How Dance Is Born and Lives in the Real World” in the business programme. AELITA PRODUCTION has already worked with Kazmiruk — the company brought “Stories. Of the Earthly and the Heavenly” to the New Stage of the Alexandrinsky Theatre, with Kazmiruk also curating that showing — but this is the company’s first time working with OMYT.

ABOUT THE VENUE

CSI “Byl” is the first contemporary art centre in the Belgorod region, opened in 2023 in the restored building of the former “Byl” cinema (1982). Two auditoriums — Blue Hall (496 seats) and Red Hall (168 seats) — allow parallel performances.
